

BENEFIT CONCERT AND CELEBRATION

SAVE THE SILVER MAPLE FOREST

To preserve the threatened Massachusetts small river floodplain forest in Cambridge, Belmont, and adjacent to Arlington, for community health and well being.

Saturday, February 4, 2011 - 7:30 pm

*First Parish Arlington
Unitarian Universalist Church
630 Massachusetts Avenue
corner of Pleasant Street, downtown Arlington*

Featuring

The Jim Scott Ensemble

Former Winter Consort guitarist, composer Jim Scott
Jose Piensacola, bass and Mark Kohler, percussion

Special Guests

Jazzman Extraordinaire Stan Strickland, sax, flute Celebrated Songwriter Rev. Fred Small

Native American Flautist Elke Johns
Eco-stilt Dancer Maya Apfelbaum

$ 20 at door

$ 18 web ticket: www.belmontcoalition.org

Children free, Students $10

(617) 388 - 3799 Quinton

Sponsored by: Coalition to Preserve Belmont Uplands, Cambridge Climate Emergency Group, Green Cambridge, The Friends of the Alewife Reservation, Arlington Land Trust, Belmont Land Trust, Sustainable Belmont, Sustainable Arlington, First Parish Arlington Green Sanctuary, Green Port Cambridge, Sierra Club of Greater Boston, Belmont Citizens Forum, Mass Peace Action, Mystic River Watershed Assoc.*